

VISA SUPPORT DOCUMENTS

for type D long-term employment visa

Type D long-term employment visa (valid for one year with the right to stay up to 90 days within a year, multiple) is issued to foreign nationals who intend to work in the Republic of Belarus.

When applying for this type of visa, in addition to the visa application form, passport, one photograph and payment, the applicant has to submit the following visa support documents:

- invitation letter (original, in Russian) issued by a company or organization, which is registered as a legal entity in Belarus, or by a representative office of a foreign company in Belarus;
- notarized copy of the employment authorization document (original, in Russian) issued by the local office of the Citizenship and Migration Department of the Ministry of Internal Affairs.

Type D short-term employment visa could also be issued upon receipt of written confirmation on issuance of the employment authorization document directly sent to the Embassy of Belarus in Canada by the local office of the Citizenship and Migration Department of the Ministry of Internal Affairs of the Republic of Belarus. The invitation letter (original, in Russian) issued by a company or organization, which is registered as a legal entity in Belarus, or by a representative office of a foreign company in Belarus is also required in this case.

Upon arrival to Belarus a foreign national should apply to the local office of the Citizenship and Migration Department of the Ministry of Internal Affairs for a temporary residence permit and, if necessary, for a multiple exit-entry visa.
